SAC SHANKLIN

ASSASSINATION OF PRESIDENT KENNEDY,
11/22/63, DALLAS, TEXAS
MISCELLANEOUS INFORMATION CONCERNING

Inspector ROBERT WICK, Crime Records, telephonically furnished following information at 5:10 PM today.

There has been published a United Press International (UPI) book called "Four Days", and there is also published an Associated Press book called "The Torch is Past". These books relate to the assassination of the President and contain script as well as photographs. Page 25 of the UPI book says this: "Suddenly two Secret Service men burst into the room. One of them, his face contorted with anguish, was waving a sub machine gun. Staff members dived for cover. A man in a business suit dashed in; the Agent slammed him againstthe wall with one punch. Dazed, the man pulled out FBI credential and gasped, 'I've got to call J. EDGAR HOOVER.' A moment later, the President and Governor CONNALLY were carried into the hospital . . . "

In the Associated Press book on page 14, next to the last paragraph, states, "Moments befdre the President arrived at the emergency entrance, a Secret Service Agent, face aligned with emotion, had dashed in with a sub machine gun. . . A man in a business suit ran in and the Agent slugged him on the jaw before the man, sinking to the floor, could bring out the card that identified him as an Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation."

A teletype will be sent to Bureau, Attention Crime Records, Attention Assistant Director C. D. DE LOACH, on 2/6/64.
